

LEVITTOWN FINANCING

Broker Closed 4,348 Loans of $33,429,850 During 1950

Permanent mortgage financing totaling $33,429,850 on 4,348 houses erected in Levittown, L. I., was arranged during 1950 by J. Halperin & Co. Additional mortgages totaling $6,794,160 on 951 houses are scheduled to be closed by March 1. The mortgages were placed with the Bowery Savings Bank and the County Trust Company.

During the three previous years the Halperin office arranged 10,564 mortgages totaling $80,441,540 in the Levittown development. With the mortgages now being processed, it will bring the total to 15,863 mortgages, amounting to $120,665,550 on the Levittown colony since 1947.

The Halperin office also has arranged for Levitt & Sons 383 mortgages totaling $5,682,700 on their Roslyn Country Club development. Last year the Halperin organization arranged 280 mortgages totaling $4,432,300 on this same project, bringing the present total to 663 loans amounting to $10,115,000.

The New York Times

Published: January 7, 1951

Copyright © The New York Times